Dear Parents/Guardians,

To maximize student learning and engagement, students attending Brucie Ball Educational Center are expected to follow our school's student expectations when receiving instruction virtually.

If the student does not comply with our school's camera policy, a Parent/Teacher conference will be scheduled to review disciplinary actions.

Thank you for facilitating in making your child's virtual instruction a positive experience.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS DURING GOOGLE MEET SESSIONS

Use your Dadeschools Student Log in

Students should log in to Google Chrome using their Dadeschools student login information.
Username: StudentIDeStudents.dadeschools.net
Personal email accounts are not acceptable when connecting to virtual class sessions/activities.

Join on Time & Be Prepared

All students should arrive to the Google Meet session at the start of the period unless told otherwise by the teacher.
Students should keep school supplies such as pencils and notebooks nearby during instruction.

Cameras On

All devices should have working cameras, and cameras should be on throughout instruction. Appropriate virtual backgrounds are recommended.
The use of filters during class sessions is unacceptable.

Headphones & Microphones

All students should have a working microphone. Students will stay muted when not talking and sharing.
